

Chapter 4 Payroll Processing

The day following the approval of the payroll by all work locations, the payroll for each location is edited and balanced individually by the Payroll Department.

Exceptions found during this process are corrected and the location administrator informed accordingly.

The computer center is informed once all corrections are made and the payroll programs are executed.